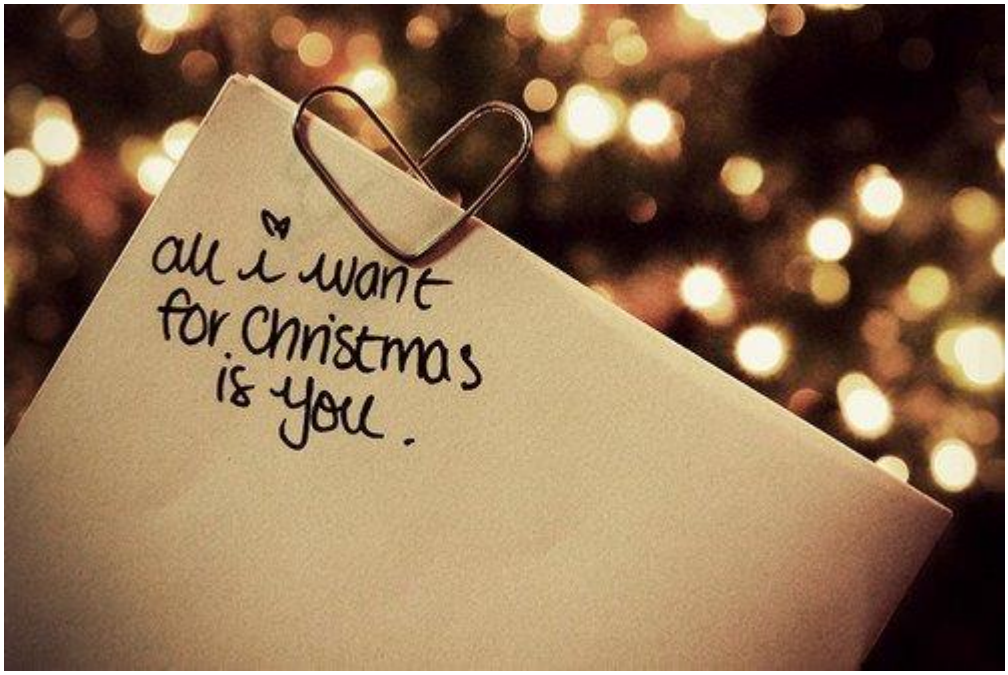
For hugs, kisses, conversations, and time together. For me, Jesus is the reason for the season. I recognize and celebrate all the blessings He bestows on me — each hug and kiss, each conversation, each second we spend with loved ones – all of that is so much brighter and warmer than anything else we allow ourselves to get wrapped up in during this time of year.

I want to wish all of you a very merry Christmas and whatever other festivities you celebrate during this holiday season. And let's remember, friends, that our blessings outnumber the lights.

What are you thankful for today?

"It came without ribbons! It came without tags! It came without packages, boxes or bags!… Then the Grinch thought of something he hadn't before! "Maybe Christmas," he thought, "doesn't come from a store. Maybe Christmas… perhaps… means a little bit more!"
~Dr. Seuss, How the Grinch Stole Christmas!



Share this:

- Share on Facebook (Opens in new window) Facebook
- Share on X (Opens in new window) X
- Share on Pinterest (Opens in new window) Pinterest
- Print (Opens in new window) Print