

That He broke the mold.

God created each of us unique. While we may have similarities, there are no two of us alike. And thank You Lord for that! No one wants another one of me out there. Our unique blueprint means you and I will have different likes and dislikes, opinions, and beliefs. Let me break it to you gently: The sooner we accept that, the faster we'll feel at peace and be able to go about our business. Especially during these trying times when we're all a little on edge.

I think we should focus on how to improve who God created us to be, instead of trying to change others, and be thankful that He broke the mold after He made each of us. After all, to each his own, no? Or as my mother was fond of saying, "Cada loco con su tema."

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post…si Dios quiere.

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart."
-Jeremiah 1:5

"Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind."
-Romans 12:2

"The real art of conversation is not only to say the right thing in the right place, but to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment."

-D. Nevill
