

For the unmasking.

This week we've been away enjoying most of our time where the latest accessory is not needed. Ahhh…the freedom.

I hope and pray soon we'll be able to return to hugging, dining, traveling, working, and learning without the need for this accessory. When, without a doubt, we will do all those things even better than before.

For now, for this week's unmasking and time with family, I am thankful.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post…si Dios quiere.

"Summer is the time when one sheds one's tensions with one's clothes, and the right kind of day is jeweled balm for the battered spirit. A few of those days and you can become drunk with the belief that all's right with the world."
