

A few words about life:

> Life is like a camera. Focus on what's important, capture the good times, develop from the negatives and if things don't work out, just take another shot.
>
> Life is like a coin. You can spend it any way you wish, but you only spend it once.
>
> Life is like a 10-speed bike. Most of us have gears we never use.
>
> Life is like a garden, you reap what you sow.
>
> Life is like a foot race, there will always be people who are faster than you, and there will always be those who are slower than you. What matters, in the end, is how you ran your race.

I could go on and on. But here's my favorite: Life is like an ice cream, enjoy it before it melts. A special thanks to my hubby who is always reminding me that we must enjoy life while we can.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post…si Dios quiere.
