

This week, it was back to the office for me after 18 months of working from home. How did it feel? In a way, like going back to school – – dreading the morning routine, but happy to see my friends.

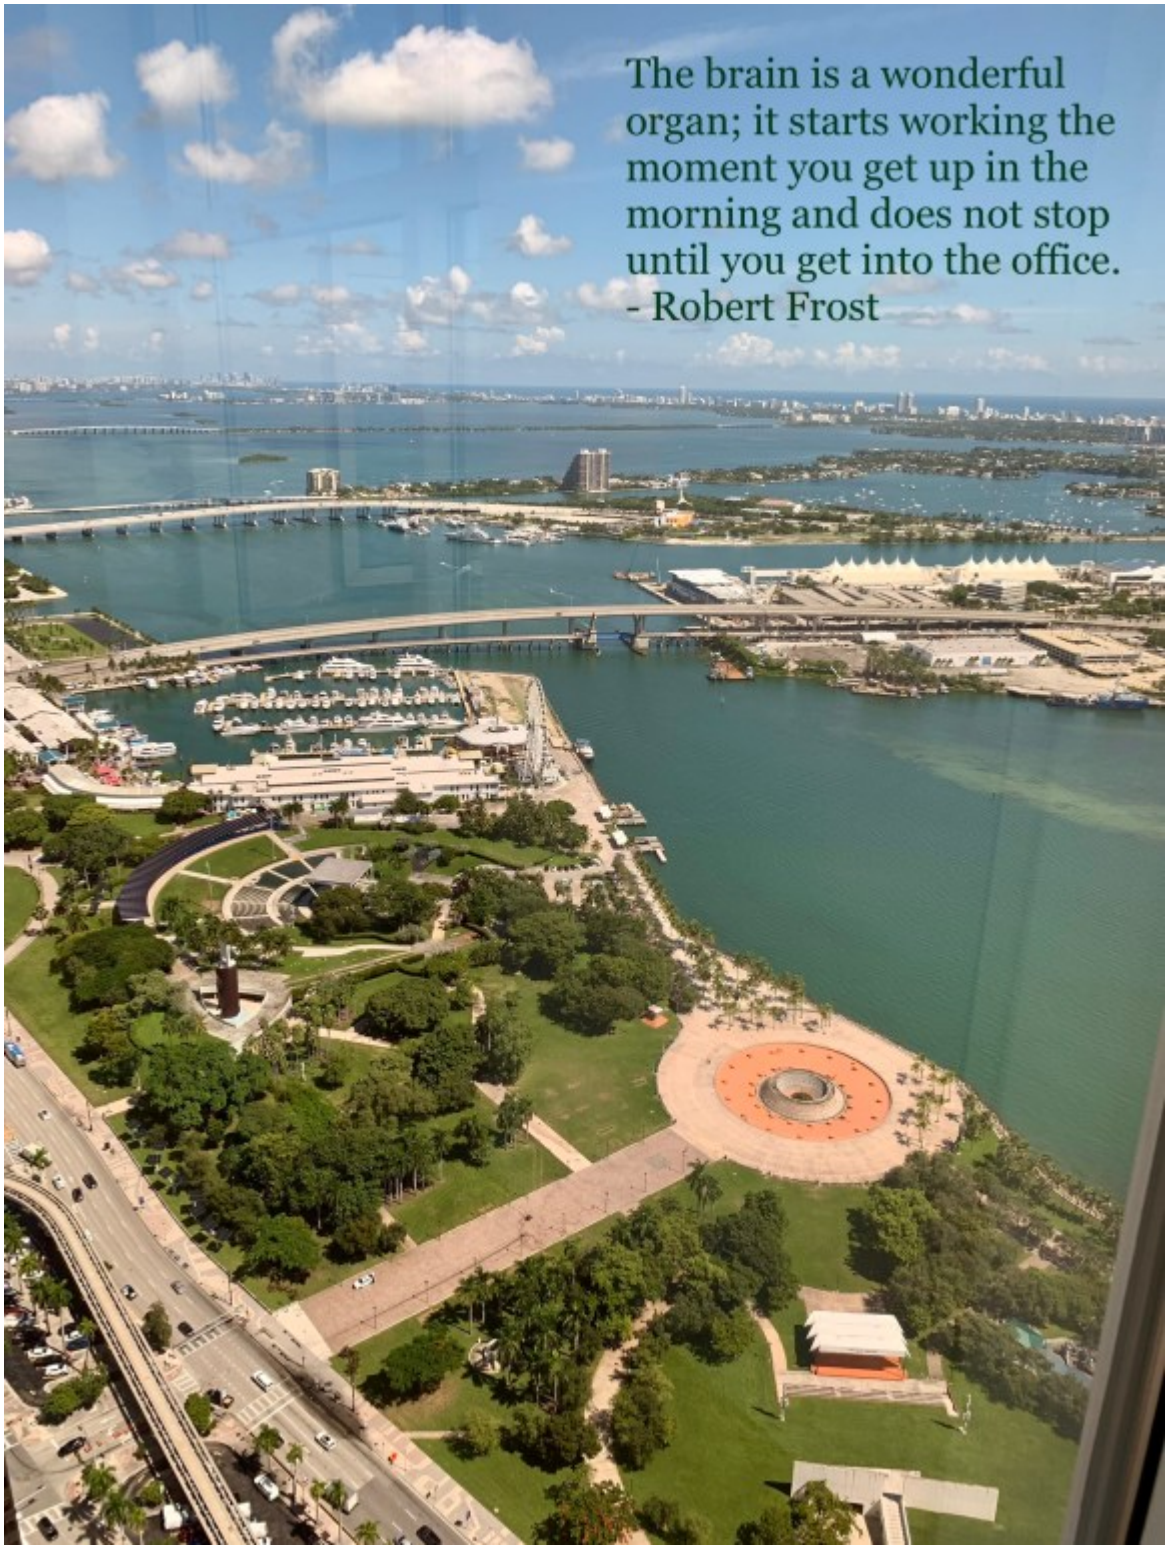
I will not enumerate here all the things I like about working from home. They are many. But I have to say that I am glad to be getting back in the swing of things.

Today I want to give a shout out to my employer, White & Case, for keeping us on and having our backs during these challenging times. I feel blessed to still have a job and happy to have a truly nice workplace to return to. And for that, I am so grateful.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post…si Dios quiere.

And my view is not bad either.



“The pessimist sees difficulty in every opportunity. The optimist sees opportunity in every difficulty."

-Winston Churchill

"You've got to get up every morning with determination if you're going to go to bed with satisfaction."
-George Lorimer

"Sometimes the best part of my job is that the chair swivels."
-Unknown

"Son, if you really want something in this life, you have to work for it. Now quiet! They're about to announce the lottery numbers."
-Homer Simpson

Share this:

- Share on Facebook (Opens in new window) Facebook
- Share on X (Opens in new window) X
- Share on Pinterest (Opens in new window) Pinterest
- Print (Opens in new window) Print