

In this great circle of life, rest assured — we are all connected. There is a specific plan and purpose set out for each of us, and many times, these plans intertwine, taking us in and out of each other's lives, at precise moments. It is a set up — the place, the time, the people.

"We Are All Connected"

We are connected, you and I... Like Wind and Rain and Earth and Sky.. We are joined by Heart and Soul Created from God's Earthen mold;

We daily grow through Thought and Deed God's Holy Love is our Seed.. Nurtured by our Faith and Love Blessed by Guidance from above;

We are Light and Laughter, Joy... We are Man, Woman, Girl and Boy And we each Sing and Mourn and Weep And what we sow we also Reap;

Connected by our Sacred Breath We all share Life and suffer Death.. So we must Nurture one another For we all are Sister, Brother;

Not Country, Religion, even Race Should cause us Hate nor bring Disgrace One blood are we, one Heart to beat All gathered 'round Lord Jesus feet;

"We Will Meet Again"

We will meet again my friend, A hundred years from today Far away from where we lived And where we used to play.

We will know each others' eyes And wonder where we met Your laugh will sound familiar Your heart, I won't forget.

We will meet, I'm sure of this, But let's not wait till then... Let's take a walk beneath the stars And share this world again.

-Ron Atchison

I sought my soul,

But my soul I could not see. I sought my God, But my God eluded me. I sought my sisters and my brothers, And here I found all three.

-Author Unknown

He drew a circle that shut me out Heretic, rebel, a thing to flout. But Love and I had the wit to win! We drew a circle that took him in.

-Edwin Markham

Your love, Jesus, is an ocean with no shore to bound it. And if I plunge into it, I carry with me all the possessions I have. You know, Lord, what these possessions are the souls you have seen fit to link with mine.

-St. Therese of Lisieux

"The Arrow and the Song"

I shot an arrow into the air, It fell to earth, I knew not where; For so swiftly it flew, the sight Could not follow it in its flight.

I breathed a song into the air, It fell to earth, I knew not where; For, who has sight so keen and strong That it can follow the flight of song?

Long, long after, in an oak
I found the arrow, still unbroken;
And the song, from beginning to end,
I found again in the heart of a friend."

-Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

"The Special List"

I have a list of folks I know all written in a book, And every now and then I go and take a look.

That is when I realize these names they are a part,

not of the book they're written in, but taken from the heart.

For each Name stands for someone who has crossed my path sometime, and in that meeting they have become the reason and the rhyme.

Although it sounds fantastic for me to make this claim, I really am composed of each remembered name.

Although you're not aware of any special link, just knowing you, has shaped my life more than you could think.

So please don't think my greeting as just a mere routine, your name was not forgotten in between.

For when I send a greeting that is addressed to you, it is because you're on the list of folks I'm indebted to.

So whether I have known you. for many days or few, in some ways you have a part in shaping things I do.

I am but a total of many folks I've met, you are a friend I would prefer never to forget.
