

My kids will no longer give me their Christmas lists, no matter how many times I ask them. Those days are long gone. Now, they just say they want love. Or money. Well, kids, I appreciate your sweetness and practicality, although I do miss those Christmas lists.

So, the rest of you, indulge me, please.  Let's just say anything was possible, anything at all. What would be your top three on your Christmas wish list? Go ahead, remember, anything goes.

I'll start. Here are mine, from bottom up.

#3 – 48 billion dollars – I think I can do a lot of good with that.

#2 – A room full of loved ones who are no longer with us – to hug incessantly. Would be kinda freaky, I know, but oh, how awesome that would be!!

#1 – A room full of loved ones still with us – to hug and to love incessantly. Oh wait, I already have that. How darn blessed, and grateful, am I?

Now you. What's on your Christmas list? And what are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post…si Dios quiere.

"Enjoy the little things, for one day you may look back and realize they were the big things."
-Robert Brault

"The best of all gifts around any Christmas tree: the presence of a happy family all wrapped up in each other."
-B. Vaughan

"All the Christmas presents in the world are worth nothing without the presence of Christ."
-D. Jeremiah

12:53
2 People
iMessage
Saturday 11:47 AM
I need your Christmas lists asap.
Lauren
Saturday 6:23 PM
Danny
Love
iMessage

Share this:

- Share on Facebook (Opens in new window) Facebook
- Share on X (Opens in new window) X
- Share on Pinterest (Opens in new window) Pinterest
- Print (Opens in new window) Print