

Hello, December! Ready, set, go!

But before we all dive headfirst into the holiday craziness, let's take a sec to think about this:

[Que The Little Drummer Boy song ♫] A poor boy, with nothing but his drum, visits the newborn Jesus. He has no gold, no expensive gifts to offer, just a simple song from the heart. And that's enough.

It's a timeless reminder that the best gifts aren't always the biggest or most expensive. What really matters is the love behind them, right? Because Christmas isn't about the price tag; it's about sharing joy, kindness, and love in whatever way we can. Maybe through a kind word, a smile, or even lending a hand. The smallest gestures can make a big difference.

So, friends and family, as we head into this festive season, let's make time for family, enjoy the little moments, and spread the love that Christmas brings. Wishing you all a peaceful and festive start to this wonderful month!

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post…si Dios quiere.

"It is December, and nobody asked if I was ready."
-S. Kay

"Blessed is the season which engages the whole world in a conspiracy of love."
-H. W. Mabie

MERRY CHRISTMAS
"Remember this December, that LOVE weighs more than gold."
