

This video goes mainly to my teenaged CCD students. They often feel apprehensive about expressing their belief in God because they are consumed with peer pressure. They don't want to be excluded if they seem too "religious," so they opt to stay silent about the Lord, and that can be so harmful. Most of them don't realize that for some other teenagers out there, they can serve as the bridge between nowhere and somewhere. Especially a friend who might be on the edge. Sometimes just a few words, the right kind of words, can mean a life-time transformation for someone. I suppose it's the same with us adults. We don't necessarily have to go crazy preaching, but we must certainly try to touch those around us, even if subliminally. Although think we all know someone who "subliminally" won't work for. With that particular individual, we must be crystal clear when passing on the Lord's message.

Anyway, this video is a bit intense, but for all intense and purpose, it brings across the point. I've added a couple of relevant poems below also. Give them a read.

My friend, I stand in the judgment now
And feel that you're to blame somehow-
On earth, I walked with you day by day
And never did you point the way.

You knew the Lord in Truth and Glory,
But never did you tell the story.
My knowledge then was very dim;
You could have led me safe to Him.

Though we live together on the earth,
You never told me of the second birth,
And now I stand this day condemned,
Because you failed to mention Him.

You taught me many things, that's true;
I called you "friend" and trusted you,
But I learn now that it's too late,
You could have kept me from this fate.

We walked by day and talked by night,
And yet you showed me not the light.
You let me live, and love, and die;
You knew I'd never live on high.

Yes, I called you "friend" in life,
And trusted you through joy and strife.
And yet on coming to the end,
I cannot, now call you "My Friend."

"Eternal Ink"

I dreamed I was in heaven
where an angel kept God's book.
He was writing so intently
I just had to take a look.
It was not, at first, his writing that made me stop and think but the fluid in the bottle that was marked "eternal ink."
This ink was most amazing, dark black upon his blotter
but as it touched the parchment it became as clear as water.

The angel kept on writing,
but as quickly as a wink
the words were disappearing with that strange eternal ink.

The angel took no notice,
but kept writing on and on.
He turned each page and filled it till all its space was gone.
I thought he wrote to no avail,
his efforts were so vain
for he wrote a thousand pages that he'd never read again.

And as I watched and wondered this awesome sight was mine,
I actually saw a word stay black as it dried upon the line.
The angel wrote and I thought
I saw a look of satisfaction.
At last he had some print to show for all his earnest action.
A line or two dried dark and stayed as black as black can be,
but strangely the next paragraph became invisible to see.

The book was getting fuller,
the angel's records true, but most of it was blank, with just a few words coming through.
I knew there was some reason,
but as hard as I could think,
I couldn't grasp the significance of that eternal ink.
The mystery burned within me.
And I finally dared to ask the angel to explain to me of his amazing task.

And what I heard was frightful
as the angel turned his head.
He looked directly at me,
and this is what he said:
I know you stand and wonder at what my writing's worth but God has told me to record the lives of those on earth.
The book that I am filing is an accurate account of every word and action and to what they do amount.

And since you have been watching
I must tell you what is true;
the details of my journal
are the strict accounts of YOU.
The Lord asked me to watch you as each day you worked and played.
I saw you as you went to church,
I saw you as you prayed.
But I was told to document your life through all the week.
I wrote when you were proud and bold,
I wrote when you were meek.

I recorded all your attitudes whether they were good or bad.
I was sorry that I had to write the things that make God sad.
So now I'll tell the wonder of this eternal ink,

for the reason for its mystery should make you stop and think.
This ink that God created to help me keep my journal will only keep a record of things that are eternal.

So much of life is wasted on things that matter not so instead of my erasing, smudging ink and ugly blot I just keep writing faithfully and let the ink do all the rest for it is able to decide what's useless and what's best.
And God ordained that as I write of all you do and say your deeds that count for nothing will just disappear away.

When books are opened someday,
as sure as heaven is true;
The Lord's eternal ink will tell what mattered most to you.
If you just lived to please yourself
the pages will be bare,
and God will issue no reward for you when you get there.
In fact, you'll be embarrassed,
you will hand your head in shame because you did not give yourself in love to Jesus' Name.

Yet maybe there will be a few recorded lines that sayed that showed the times you truly cared,
sincerely loved and prayed.
But you will always wonder as you enter heaven's door how much more glad you would have been if only you'd done more.
For I record as God sees,
I don't stop to even think because the truth is written with God's eternal ink.

When I heard the angel's story
I fell down and wept and cried for as yet I still was dreaming
I hadn't really died.
And I said: O angel tell the Lord that soon as I awake
I'll live my life for Jesus
I'll do all for his dear sake.
I'll give in full surrender;
I'll do all He wants me to;
I'll turn my back on self and sin and whatever isn't true.

And though the way seems long and rough
I promise to endure
I'm determined to pursue the things that are holy, clean and pure.
With Jesus as my helper,
I will win lost souls to Thee,
for I know that they will live with Christ for all eternity.
And that's what really matters

when my life on earth is gone that I will stand before the Lord and hear Him say, well done.

For is it really worth it as my life lies at the brink?
and I realize that God keeps books
with His eternal ink.
Should all my life be focused on things that turn to dust?
From this point on I'll serve the Lord;
I can, I will, I must!
I will NOT send blank pages
up to God's majestic throne for where that record's going now is my eternal home.

I'm giving all to Jesus
I now have seen the ink
for I saw an angel write my life
with God's eternal ink.
