

For the gift of Faith...who would I be without it? A crazed woman talking incessantly to herself. But no! And for His unending grace...showering every aspect of my daily life.

~ Hem your blessings with thankfulness so they don't unravel.

Share this:

- Click to share on Facebook (Opens in new window)
- Click to share on Twitter (Opens in new window)
- Click to share on Pinterest (Opens in new window)
- Click to print (Opens in new window)