

Some days, today being one of those , I'm reminded how God moves me like a puzzle piece. Ready or not. Into every job, every trial, every experience, and life of every person I meet. Slowly forming each chapter of my life. Some parts of the picture seldom clear until years later, if at all. Some days, today being one of those, I wonder what the completed puzzle will look like. Most days I don't though. I just want Him to keep on arranging it. I just want those pieces to keep on coming.

"A man's heart plans his way, but the Lord directs his steps."
~Proverbs 16:9
