

For being thought of. Be it a message, a card, a package, a gesture, a call.... In this fast-paced life, it is awesome to know you were thought of. Today I am grateful for those who keep me in mind and reach out to show me.

Is anyone thinking of you right now? Maybe someone is worried about you? Is praying for you? Or just really cares and has told you? Time to add it to your list of wonderful things to be grateful for.

“I thank my God every time I remember you.”

~ Philippians 1:3
