The holiest of Wednesdays must be near. Tomorrow marks the beginning of the season during which we prepare to behold God's sacrifice for us. A time to be quiet and still; to clear the mind, to focus, to recharge. To get in tune with His love and find the peace and hope that we so often let escape from us. I so need this. I can't wait to be halfway into this precious season and say, "Yup, I feel Lent-y." ♥

I pray the ashes you choose to receive tomorrow mark more than just your foreheads. I pray they mark your hearts. Have a blessed Lent season my dear friends and family.

Remember that thou art dust, and to dust thou shalt return.

—Genesis 3:19
