

For those who put a smile on my face and very often send me into laughter. From my son, with his goofy crazy secret side (we're so much alike it's scary), to my friend Ledys, whose laughter at the drop of a hat is so contagious, to my friend Martica's consistent sunshine smile, to my co-worker and partner in crime Mildred, only eye contact needed there to set that off. So good for my heart! Thank you guys!

Who puts a smile on your face? What are you thankful for?

"Laughter is an instant vacation."

A black rectangular box containing white handwritten text. The text reads: "The smile on my face doesn't mean my life is perfect. It means I appreciate what I have and what God has blessed me with." The handwriting is casual and legible.

The smile on my face doesn't mean my life is perfect. It means I appreciate what I have
and what God has blessed me with.

~Milton Berle
