

Yesterday we lost a good man. A loving husband and father. A loyal friend. Our paths crossed often as he and I worked in the same building and, most significantly, worshiped in the same church. He always offered me a warm smile, followed by a pleasant word. No doubt the legal community has lost a true professional; the Sts. Peter & Paul family, a faith-filled brother.

David Johnson — a gentle soul, now with the Lord. Those of us whose lives were touched by him, are better for it. And for that, I am thankful.

Your love, Jesus, is an ocean with no shore to bound it. And if I plunge into it, I carry with me all the possessions I have. You know, Lord, what these possessions are— the souls you have seen fit to link with mine.

-St. Thérèse of Lisieux

Share this:

- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Twitter \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Pinterest \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\)