

It's Holy Thursday. Lent's almost over. How did you do? Personally, I was a bit of a spiritual couch potato this Lenten season. Not happy about that. But there's no Mass more poignant than tonight's, at least for me, and I'm counting on it, and a recent surge of peace, to propel me right off that couch! The Lord is merciful and gracious. And for that, my friends, today I am thankful.

I hope you're having a very blessed Holy Week, and may you have an uplifting Easter. God bless.

"Let every man and woman count himself immortal. Let him catch the revelation of Jesus in his resurrection. Let him say not merely, 'Christ is risen,' but 'I shall rise.'" ~Phillips Brooks

Share this:

- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Twitter \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Pinterest \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\)