

Today I'm thankful for what I DON'T have - I don't have a lousy job. I don't have to beg for food. I don't have rifts with anyone I know. I don't have to wish or hope to be loved.

What don't you have that you are thankful for?

*"If you haven't all the things you want,
be grateful for the things you don't have
that you wouldn't want."*
