

For those time capsule items that fill you with gratefulness – my first passport. Cuban-made. Cuban-raised. But free American. And for all of it, I'm so thankful.

“We left the way one leaves a cherished but impossible love: our hearts heavy with regret but beating with great hope.”

~Mirta Ojito, Finding Manana: A Memoir of a Cuban Exodus

“Some Americans need hyphens in their names, because only part of them has come over; but when the whole man has come over, heart and thought and all, the hyphen drops of its own weight out of his name.”

~Woodrow Wilson

Share this:

- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\) Facebook
- Click to share on X \(Opens in new window\) X
- Click to share on Pinterest \(Opens in new window\) Pinterest
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\) Print