I've imagined myself sitting at that table (not that I'm worthy). Surrounded by them, and in the presence of Him. Listening, watching, witnessing the institution of the Eucharist. Believing that from that moment on, I, we, would have that Blessed Sacrament to physically connect me, us, to Him. What a Grand Plan that was! Thank You, Lord.

I invite you to attend a Holly Thursday Mass today and experience what a special ceremony it is.

Wishing all of you a blessed Holy Thursday.

What are you thankful for today?

"…In this world I cannot see the Most High Son of God with my own eyes, except for His Most Holy Body and Blood." – St. Francis os Assisi

"What wonderful majesty! What stupendous condescension! O sublime humility! That the Lord of the whole universe, God and the Son of God, should humble Himself like this under the form of a little bread, for our salvation." – St. Francis of Assisi

"Go often to Holy Communion. Go very often! This is your one remedy." – Therese de Lisieux
