

Nothing worse than losing a loved one. Nothing like faith and hope to help us through it. And nothing better than a great support system to comfort the mournful heart. Today and always, so Thankful for family and friends.

To our beloved friend Liana – Our prayers are with you, Larry, Jr. and Joseph. Grateful to have known Larry. May he be resting in the arms of our Lord. We love you guys!

“Very often people come to me and say: “Mr. Moody, do you think we shall know each other in Heaven?” Very often it is a mother who has lost a dear child, and who wishes to see it again. Sometimes it is a child who has lost a mother, a father; and who wants to recognize them in Heaven. There is a verse in Scripture in answer to this, and that is: “We shall be satisfied” (Psalm 17:15). It is all I want to know. My brother who went up there the other day I shall see, because I shall be satisfied. We will see all those we loved on Earth up there, and if we loved them here, we will love them ten thousand times more when we meet them there.
– Dwight L. Moody

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.”
–John 3:16

The image features a quote by Emily Dickinson centered on a rectangular background with a repeating floral pattern in shades of pink and cream. The text is arranged in three lines: the first two lines are in a large, black, serif font, and the third line is in a black, cursive script font. Below the quote, the author's name is written in a smaller, black, serif font, flanked by horizontal dashes.

Unable are the loved to die.
For love is immortality.
—Emily Dickinson—

Share this:

- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\) Facebook
- Click to share on X \(Opens in new window\) X
- Click to share on Pinterest \(Opens in new window\) Pinterest
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\) Print