

For true friendships — committed, caring, loyal, supportive; they know each other's stories, can transcend time and distance. They stick. I look way back and see them throughout my life. What a blessing! And I am so grateful.

What are you thankful for today?

"I thank my God every time I remember you."
– Philippians 3:1

"I really like the thing called friendship. And I think the most fulfilling kind of friendship is the one that you stumble quite randomly upon. Unexpected and unknown. You can learn a lot about yourself from these kinds of friendships, and some last a long time while others last only for the duration of time that you have together! But then I wonder, is the length of a friendship measured by the time you are given to spend within each other's company? Or is it measured by how long into the future you can look back at the photos you took, look back and replay the adventures and the laughter in your head; still feeling like it was one of the "bestest" times of your life? Because if it's the latter, I have a thousand friends!"
-C. JoyBell C.

"To be capable of steady friendship or lasting love, are the two greatest proofs, not only of goodness of heart, but of strength of mind."
-W. Hazlitt

Share this:

- Share on Facebook (Opens in new window) Facebook
- Share on X (Opens in new window) X
- Share on Pinterest (Opens in new window) Pinterest

- Print (Opens in new window) Print