For a brand new season. What season, you ask? Okay, so we live in Miami, Florida, legit question. But don't spoil my metaphor here people, just go with it.

God, in His infinite wisdom, has perfect timing in getting us through all the changes He makes in our lives. As we move into autumn today, let's embrace an attitude of gratitude, and do our absolute best with where He has placed us right now. He has reasons for our seasons, and for this I am thankful.

"To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven."
-Ecclesiastes 3:1

Oh, and yes, happy first day of Autumn in the 305!
