In the midst of parenthood, there are instances when a good parental moment meets an observant child.

Saw this Twitter post from Lauren while the four of us were on a quick getaway this past weekend:

It feels good when they notice the good stuff too. So thankful.

"We're [parents]) always bluffing, pretending we know best, when most of the time we're just praying we won't screw up too badly."
-Jodi Picoult

“To be in your children’s memories tomorrow,
You have to be in their lives today.”
-B. Johnson
