

That His love will always find us. Life is a helluva coaster ride, as we know, where we're strapped in alongside the good, the bad, and the ugly. And I must say, among all of the emotions I personally experience during life's ups and downs and crazy turnarounds, I've learned that the one constant is love. Love from my family and friends (those with us here and those with us in spirit) and love from God. Please, while on your own ride, open your eyes or close your eyes, don't matter, just feel the love.

I truly believe that love will always find us in the good, the bad, and the ugly. And for that and the many blessings God has bestowed upon me, today and always, I am Thankful.

From our home to yours, a very blessed Thanksgiving to all. Until next Thursday's post...si Dios quiere.

What are you thankful for today?

"What a grand thing, to be loved! What a grander thing still, to love!"

-Victor Hugo

"You can never run away from God's love. No matter who you are or where you have been, God's love will find you."

-G. Mona

"To be grateful is to recognize the Love of God in everything He has given us – and He has given us everything. Every breath we draw is a gift of His love, every moment of existence is a grace, for it brings with it immense graces from Him. Gratitude therefore takes nothing for granted, is never unresponsive, is constantly awakening to new wonder and to praise of the goodness of God. For the grateful person knows that God is good, not by hearsay but by experience. And that is what makes all the difference."

-Thomas Merton
