

For spring cleaning! Everyone at home is on a roll, cleaning up and clearing out (if you hang out at our house more than two days you too may be packed up and donated). Clutter be gone. I love it! Except for photographs; those paper images are precious and sacred. I've been sorting out a zillion of those lately, but that's a story for another time.

All this much needed decluttering can be daunting, but the finished product is so satisfying. Who was it that said, "Out of clutter, find simplicity"? Einstein I think, but it could've been me 'cause I'm all about simplicity.

So now there's a bit of extra space around us, in our hearts and in our minds (and in the "junk drawer") for more important things...and thoughts (and new junk). Oh yes, of course the mind needs to be decluttered, but that, too, is a story for another time.

Okay, your turn to make space. And remember to donate.

Until next Thursday's post...si Dios quiere.

What are you thankful for today?

"Have nothing in your house that you do not know to be useful, or believe to be beautiful."

-W. Morris

"Happiness is a place between too little and too much."

-Finnish proverb

"I love Pinterest. It's electronic hoarding without the clutter."

- Internet meme

Share this:

- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\) Facebook
- Click to share on X \(Opens in new window\) X
- Click to share on Pinterest \(Opens in new window\) Pinterest
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\) Print