

For those who risk their lives for others.

The Thai soccer boys, their coach, and the rescuers are all out of the cave safely. Thank YOU, Lord! And we can also thank the many men and women who worked tirelessly to rescue this group. For their skill and bravery, we are grateful. Also, we pray for the Navy SEAL who lost his life while trying to save others, may he rest in peace.

Fortunately, no matter how upside down this world seems at times, one thing's for certain — it is never short of heroes. And for that, today and always, I am thankful.

Until next Thursday's post...si Dios quiere.

What are you thankful for today?

*"There is no greater love than to lay down your life for another."
- John 15-13*

Share this:

- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Twitter \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Pinterest \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\)