

A word about Love: We don't know our own strength until we have seen how strong love makes us.

Ray, Lauren, and Danny, I love you. For how strong you make me, this Valentine's Day and always, I am thankful.

> i carry your heart with me (i carry it in > my heart) i am never without it (anywhere
> i go you go, my dear; and whatever is done
> by only me is your doing, my darling)
> i fear
> no fate (for you are my fate, my sweet) i want
> no world (for beautiful you are my world, my true)
> and it's you are whatever a moon has always meant
> and whatever a sun will always sing is you
>
> here is the deepest secret nobody knows > (here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud
> and the sky of the sky of a tree called life; which grows > higher than soul can hope or mind can hide)
> and this is the wonder that's keeping the stars apart
>
> i carry your heart (i carry it in my heart)
> ~e. e. cummings

Happy Valentine's Day, friends and family! ♥

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post…si Dios quiere.

“Being deeply loved by someone gives you strength, while loving someone deeply gives you courage.”
-Lao Tzu

“Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.”
-1 Corinthians 13:4-7
