

That we always have something to give.

As you know, during the last few weeks, I've been fundraising for the St. Jude kids. A lot of you have donated, and I am so grateful to you. But, today, I just want to put out there that our supporting a cause and helping others is not always about money or provisions.

If we have faith, we are rich beyond measure. If we spread our faith, we can help beyond measure. We should never underestimate the power of a faith-filled word or action, or a prayer. So you see, we always have something to give. And for that, I am truly thankful.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post...si Dios quiere.

"Faith is about doing. You are how you act, not just how you believe."

-Mitch Albom

"Start by doing what's necessary, then what's possible, and suddenly you are doing the impossible."

-Saint Francis

"You cannot see faith, but you can see the footprints of the faithful. We must leave behind "faithful footprints" for others to follow."

-D. Anderson
