For our powerful intercessors.

These days, we need all the extra help we can get. I want to remind those of you who believe in the intercession of saints that they, who reign together with God, offer up their own prayers for us. As most of you know, St. Jude (the patron saint of desperate cases) is my go-to guy. Many of you have stickies with your supplications and petitions stuck on my St. Jude board at the office. At home, currently, I have a candle lit and one sticky with one petition for all.

May the saints in heaven continue to intercede for us here on earth. May they appeal to God on our behalf to stop this pandemic and help those afflicted. St. Jude, pray for us!

For our intercessors, and the power God has bestowed on them, today and always, I am thankful.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post…si Dios quiere.

"The nation doesn't simply need what we have. It needs what we are."
-St. Teresia Benedicta

"All the darkness in the world cannot extinguish the light of a single candle."
-St. Francis

> [Note: By the way, in case you're not Spanglish-speaking, "si Dios quiere" means God-willing. Mom finished most of her sentences with that phrase. I added it to my sendoff in her honor after her passing].

Share this:

- Share on Facebook (Opens in new window) Facebook
- Share on X (Opens in new window) X
- Share on Pinterest (Opens in new window) Pinterest
- Print (Opens in new window) Print