

For my job and extended family.

I'm feeling very fortunate to be employed. Right now, millions of people are not feeling that fortunate. But I am one of the lucky ones who has a job that can be done remotely, and work for a company that not only allowed us to do that, but also helped us settle into our new working environment.

I feel for those struggling during this daunting economic crisis. I am grateful to be employed and to be part of the White & Case family.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post…si Dios quiere.

"Life is short…
Work where you're continuously accepted,
respected, appreciated, encouraged, inspired,
empowered, and valued."
-T. Howard

"In the midst of chaos, there is also opportunity."
-S. Tzu

"You may not always end up where you thought you were going, but you will always end up where you were meant to be."

-Unknown

[Note: By the way, in case you're not Spanglish-speaking, "si Dios quiere" means God-willing. Mom finished most of her sentences with that phrase. I added it to my sendoff in her honor after her passing].

Share this:

- Share on Facebook (Opens in new window) Facebook
- Share on X (Opens in new window) X

- Share on Pinterest (Opens in new window) Pinterest
- Print (Opens in new window) Print