

For the will and the way.

Our family's big on birthday celebrations. Coronavirus was not going to stop this one. On the contrary, it actually gave us a new way to party -- The Drive-by Caravan.

The Coronavirus social distancing requisite brought about this latest way to celebrate, and yesterday we had a chance to see it in action when family and many of Lauren's friends drove by our home in a caravan of honking, music-blasting, decorated cars to make her 28th birthday one she is not likely to forget. With other friends and family joining in via FaceTime, we were quite a crowd.

Thank you to all who took time and participated to make this surprise celebration extra special for Lauren. And to the Lord, who ignites the will and gives us the way.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post...si Dios quiere.

Lauren: May God bless you with many more wonderful birthdays. We love you.
