

Family and friends, like in a blink of an eye, once again, our frijoles, yuca y lechón will adorn our tables on Noche Buena and, hopefully, this year more of us will be surrounded by those we love, accompanied by the spirit of those we miss.

This gathering season comes courtesy of a Savior. Let's not forget it is He we celebrate, and that it is thanks to Him we can. And for that, I am thankful.

From our home to yours, may the presence and love of Christ always fill your hearts, and may your Christmas be wrapped with peace, health and happiness.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post...si Dios quiere.

"God grant you the light in Christmas, which is faith;
the warmth of Christmas, which is love;
the radiance of Christmas, which is purity;
the righteousness of Christmas, which is justice;
the belief in Christmas, which is truth;
the all of Christmas, which is Christ."

-Wilda English

"The best of all gifts around any Christmas tree: the presence of a happy family all wrapped up in each other."

-B. Hillis
