

Good morning, guys! Never in the history of the world has patience played such an important role in our lives. Wow! It is a virtue, and skill, that the world is sorely lacking at the moment and, I'm sorry to say, the absence of it is going to cut our lives short.

We want this and that NOW, and we want to knock the head off of this and that person. But in reality, there are a ton of things we can't control, and we don't always know what's going on with other people. So once again, let's not be Lucy. Let's do pray, pray, pray for patience and understanding. Please.

For every time the good Lord helps me to be patient, and every time another is patient with me, I am so very thankful.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post…si Dios quiere.
