

A penny for your Christmas thoughts?

We know this time of year can be bittersweet. On the one hand, we are looking forward to the holiday celebrations and, on the other, we may be dreading them if we are dealing with an illness or the loss of a loved one, recent or not. Been there, I know how you feel.

Know that prayers are being said for all who are going through a rough patch right now. Hang in there. Believe that if life gave it to you, God will get you through it.

No matter what is going on in our lives, we have to make room in our head for good thoughts -- about our many blessings despite adversity and, especially, about the folks who are still here with us. Make your thoughts be worth every penny.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post...si Dios quiere.
