

What a year! But, aren't they all? Through the highs and lows, I look back on 2022 and I'm feeling grateful.

I wish all of you a super-duper healthy and happy new year. Let's work hard to leave good, sound footprints others can follow, always aiming to make a difference. God bless, and much love to all.

"To laugh often and much;
to win the respect of the intelligent people and the affection of children;
to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends;
to appreciate beauty;
to find the best in others;
to leave the world a bit better
whether by a healthy child,
a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition;
to know that one life has breathed easier because you lived here.
This is to have succeeded."

-Ralph Waldo Emerson

Cheers to 2023! Until next Thursday's post...si Dios quiere.
