

It is an act of faith to send our kids out into the world. That's never been more true than in these times and in this world. Really, that's what it takes, I think - faith.

And so, what to be thankful for today? Our willingness to put our lives in His hands...and keep going.

Until next Thursday's post...si Dios quiere.

"Place your fear in the hands of the One whose hand calmed the sea, and He will calm your heart. Leave your hurt in the hands of the One whose hand gave sight to the blind, and He will heal your wounded heart. Put your personal view in the hands of the One whose perspective is perfect and He will give you clarity."

-B. Bailey

"Everyone has a thousand wishes before a tragedy, but just one afterward."

-F. Backman

"A senseless tragedy remains forever tragic, but it is up to us whether it remains forever senseless."

-R. Breault
