

It's National Park Week, and I couldn't let the week go by without expressing my gratitude for them. Our family's adventures during our 26-year park quest have helped us create memories we will cherish forever.

I highly recommend you include a national park in your travel plans at some point in your life. They are amazing places. Plus, in a world that's becoming increasingly virtual, getting out there, out where there's no Wi-Fi (don't worry, you'll find connection...of a better kind), will restore your sanity. I can vouch for that.

For our 26-year (so far) park quest, I am so very grateful.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post...si Dios quiere.

"Within National Parks is room — glorious room — room in which to find ourselves, in which to think and hope, to dream and plan, to rest and resolve."
