

Snowbirds be like “Well hello, summer!”

Floridians: “Wait, what?”

That’s because it’s been feeling like summer to us since like forever. I mean, when was the last time you didn’t wear your flip-flops? But in real-time, yesterday was the official start of the season — more daylight to enjoy the outdoors, extra vitamin D (it goes without saying, don’t forget to sunscreen up!), warm ocean waters, afternoon 10-minute storms — Ahhh...all in all, just more time to relax and reconnect.

Stay cool and enjoy your summer, everyone, rain or shine! ☐

For summertime, I am grateful. What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday’s post...si Dios quiere.
