

It's all fun and games until...life happens.

As I laughed at this comic strip, the thought "always carry duct tape" came to mind. Probably because I say that a lot. Most times I mean it literally, because it happens to be a great survival tool. Usually the first item in our hiking backpack.

But, while writing this post, I realized the many rolls of proverbial duct tape we've gone through in our family to remedy the unexpected. Tape in the form of positivity, affirmation, resourcefulness, resilience and faith...you know, to help us plug life's holes.

Carry duct tape, people, for when life happens.

I thank the Lord for the insight, every single time.

What are you thankful for today?

Until next Thursday's post...si Dios quiere.

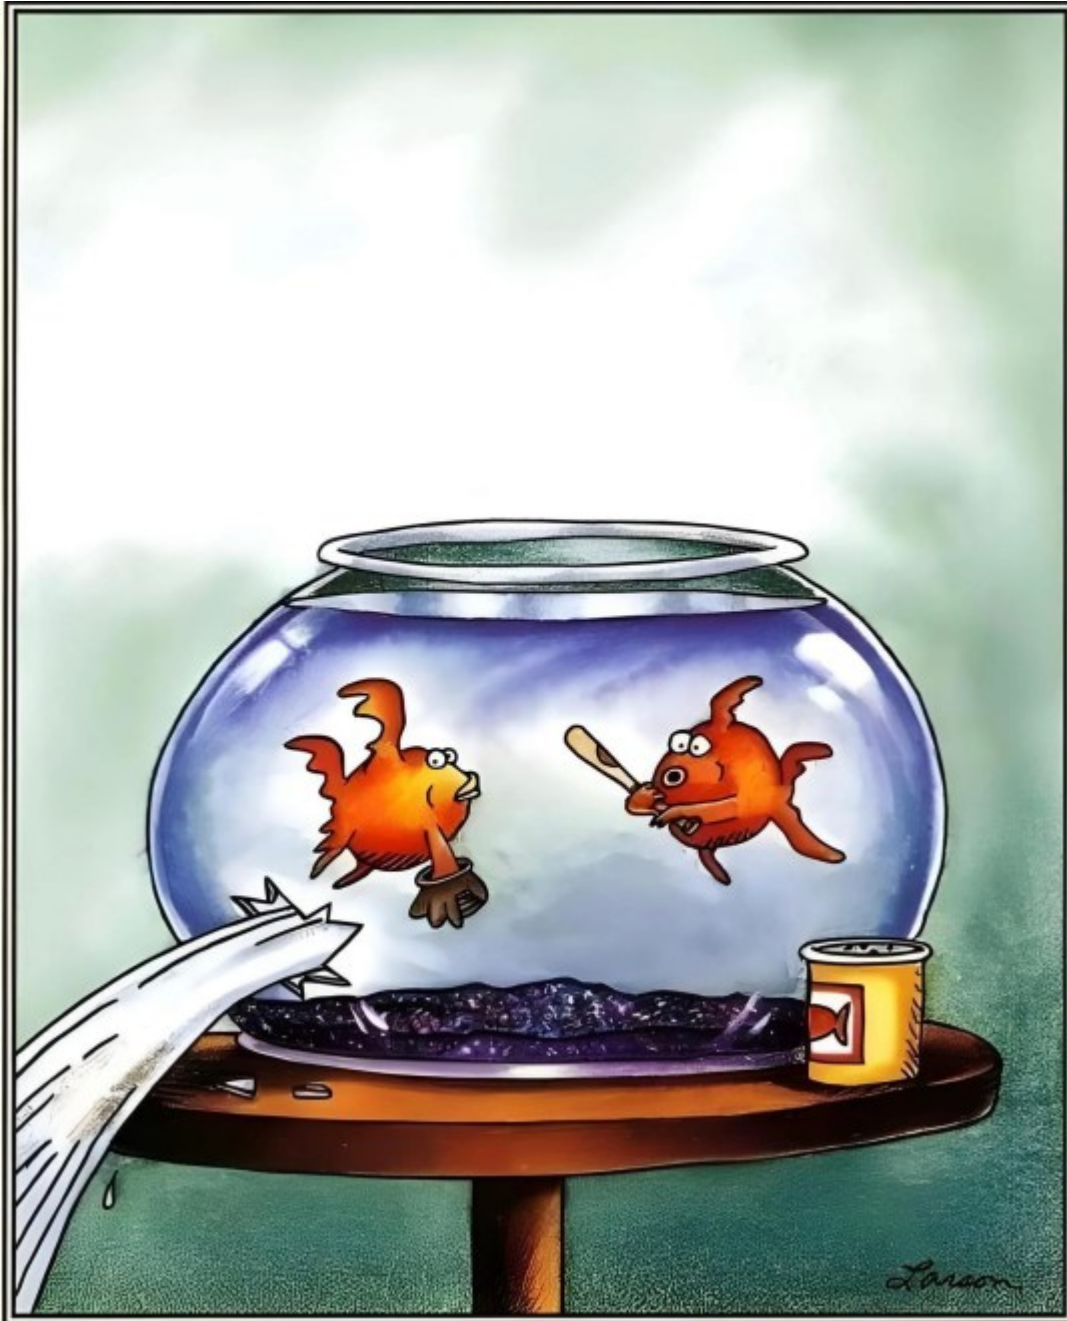

"Faith, like duct tape, can be used in a variety of situations to hold our lives together."

"I believe that most problems in life can be resolved by a proper application of thought, love, humor or duct tape."

-C. Boutwell

"Such a bad mistake it would be, to embark on marriage and adult life without a nice supply of duct tape."

-N. Werlin

Share this:

- Share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\) Facebook
- Share on X \(Opens in new window\) X

- Share on Pinterest \(Opens in new window\) Pinterest
- Print \(Opens in new window\) Print